Experiment Station report for 24 hours ending at 7 a.m. Wednesday: High 87, Low 67.

ARKANSAS — Decreasing cloudiness east today. Otherwise, partly cloudy through Thursday with little temperature change. High today and Thursday low 90s west and 80s elsewhere. Low tonight mid 60s and 80s elsewhere. Low tonight mid 60s to low 70s.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Acreage cutbacks, dry weather and tighter government controls on some commodities have reduced prospects for another record-breaking harvest for American farmers.

Total production, however, is expected to be down only slightly from the record in 1969, the Agriculture Department said.

Tighter acreage controls on wheat and rice, for example, have helped push food grain prospects down 7 per cent from 1969, according to the department's monthly crop report issued Tuesday.

Production of noncitrus fruit, including apples, peaches and pears, was predicted to be 12 per cent less, and the output of half a dozen major vegetables for processing 5 per cent less.

Over-all, the Crop Reporting Board said, the "all crops" index as of August 1 was 20.6 per cent higher than the 1957-59 average, compared with a gain last year of 21.3 per cent.

The nation's corn crop, a key in total farm production, was estimated at 4.69 billion bushels. This is down 127 million from the July forecast but still 3 per cent more than 1969 production.

Production of all wheat was estimated at 1.357 billion bushels, a slight gain from July indications but 7 per cent less than 1969 output. A smaller government acreage allotment was in effect for this year's crop.

Soybean output was estimated for the first time this year in the August report. USDA called for a production of 1.114 billion bushels, slightly less than last year's record despite a larger acreage.

Total production of the four major livestock feed grains—corn, oats, barley and sorghum—was estimated at 175 million tons, slightly more than last year.

Gubernatorial Candidates at Rally

PARAGOULD, Ark. (AP) — All eight Democratic candidates for governor spoke at a rally here Tuesday night. Most of the speeches criticized Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller and former Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

The event was held at a drive-in theatre. A free movie was offered to those who stayed through more than four hours of political speeches.

Robert C. Compton of El Dorado declared that Rockefeller is trying to "divide and conquer" the state with a "cleverly devised campaign."

Compton promised to support the Democratic nominee for governor.

Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell promised that if elected he would use the influence of the office to widen and improve Arkansas Highway 25 in the Greene County area. He also promised to have the slogan "Land of Opportunity" returned to the auto license plates.

Faubus lashed out at Rockefeller and said that "I beat him once and I can beat him again."

Dale Bumpers pointed out that Faubus ran for governor 16 years ago and Bumpers today is the same age that Faubus was then. Bumpers said that he did not think Faubus' candidacy represented the best interest of the state.

Bill Wells prided himself as not having "slung any mud" in the campaign and then lashed out at Purcell for promising to improve the roads in the Paragould area.

W. S. Cheek said that Rockefeller was not capable of "operating a popcorn stand at a profit." He also criticized Hayes McClerkin as the "country clubber candidate who has never hit a lick of work in his life."

James Malone Jr. said the people of Arkansas must come to the decision as to whether they are ready to turn the state over to his generation.

McClerkin said that the state needs to develop a government capable of handling the day to day problems that arise.

The program started shortly before 7 p.m. with music and continued until after midnight. Several county and district candidates also spoke at the rally.

Populations on Warm Coasts Called Sitting Ducks for Hurricanes

By BEN FUNK, Associated Press Writer

MIAMI (AP) — Expanding populations along the warm weather coasts of the Atlantic and Gulf states could become "sitting ducks for disaster" unless escape routes are provided from tropical storms, says the chief of the National Hurricane Center.

"A hurricane in the near future could kill 20,000 or 30,000, even 50,000 people unless we have sound planning," Dr. Robert H. Simpson told President Nixon's fourth regional Disaster Preparedness Conference Tuesday.

"I am enormously concerned with development of high density populations right at the shore lines," Simpson said. "If we stack in people by hundreds of thousands and fail to provide escape routes, we will be sitting ducks for disaster one of these days."

Simpson said Dade County—Miami—is a prime example of mushrooming population and poor planning.

If a major hurricane struck south of Miami, he said, 250,000 people jammed between U.S. 1 and Biscayne Bay would have only the one highway on which to travel to shelter.

"A very high percentage of these people would be drowned or killed by flying debris," he said.

Simpson told disaster officials from 12 Southern and Southwestern states that Hurricane Celia, which ravaged Corpus Christi, Tex., Aug. 3, was "a meteorological enigma which will give forecasters and building engineers something to think about for years."

Homeowners Insurance Hike Denied

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Acting Insurance Commissioner Ernest J. W. Fennell today disapproved an application by the Multi-Line Insurance Rating Bureau for a rate increase on some homeowners policies.

Fennell had taken the application under advisement July 21 following a public hearing on the application.

The bureau represents most companies that write homeowners insurance in Arkansas. The bureau had sought a mandatory $50 "all-peril deductible" for the majority of homeowners policies. The bureau said this would raise the net level of premiums on a statewide basis by 2.03 per cent. At the hearing, it was reported that the increase would have affected nearly 15 per cent of those in the state holding homeowner policies.

However, Fennell said that supplemental material furnished by the bureau indicated that 30 per cent of policyholders would have been affected by the change.

Fennell said that while "the indicated increase in rates was shown as 2.03 per cent statewide that those individuals now holding policies containing deductible clauses known as deductible 1 and 2 would receive a rate increase of approximately 14.7 per cent."

Fennell also said that the trend formula used by the bureau was seriously questioned because the formula did not recognize the effect on losses by the "so-called inflation guard endorsement," which "serves to automatically increase the amount of insurance periodically, with consequent increase in premium in the absence of rate change."

In denying the application, Fennell pointed out that in 1965 a 12.9 rate increase was approved and in 1969 a 25 per cent rate increase was approved.

Freedom of Choice Plan Ruled Out

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — U.S. District Judge Oren Harris ruled Tuesday that the Watson Chapel School District could not use a freedom of choice school desegregation plan.

Harris gave the district until Aug. 26 to submit an acceptable desegregation plan. The Watson Chapel schools were scheduled to open for the fall term on that date.

The ruling came after Harris heard 24 witnesses and a number of motions by John Norman Warnock of Camden, the district's attorney, including one asking that Harris disqualify himself from hearing the Watson Chapel case.

The motion for disqualification stated that a vacancy exists in the 8th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals and that Arkansas is the most likely state to supply a judge to fill the vacancy. Warnock said that Harris and Judge J. Smith Henley are "no doubt under consideration" for the post.

In another case Tuesday, Harris approved the Helena-West Helena desegregation plan.

Farm Subsidy Cutback Only $58 Million

By DON KENDALL, AP Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The $55,000 ceiling on farm subsidy payments voted by the House represents only a $58 million cutback in the $3.5 billion program, but some congressmen see the action as the first step in eliminating payments to farmers for not growing crops.

"This may be the last farm bill Congress ever passes," said Sen. Robert Dole, R-Kan., after the House approved the omnibus bill containing the subsidy ceiling. "One way to end the program is to cut down on payments."

Some lawmakers don't want to end the program. The result, they say, would be higher food prices, a cutback in the number of farms and the threat of an economic disaster.

The bill, which sets the $55,000 per crop ceiling on cotton, feed grains and wheat, now goes to the Senate where President Nixon is expected to fight attempts to lower the limit to $20,000. Present law sets no limit.

The House passed the bill last week after Nixon urged acceptance of the Agriculture Committee version with the $55,000 lid. Backers of the lower figure have vowed to continue the fight after the Senate acts and the bill goes to conference committee.

The subsidy lid was a landmark move to include in a general farm bill restraints on huge subsidy payments to individual growers.

It was time, the House decided, to shut off million-dollar subsidy payments—five of them last year—to huge operators like the J.G. Boswell Co., Corcoran, Calif., whose $4,370,657 payment has become a rallying cry for subsidy critics.

The limitation, to begin next year, was introduced in the Senate by Dole, one of Nixon's staunchest supporters.

But Dole is with Secretary of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin, the White House and the House Agriculture Committee in holding the line at $55,000 limit, a figure deemed ridiculously high by farm critics.

The issue is expected to come to a head on Aug. 18 when the Senate Agriculture Committee takes up the farm bill. Chairman Allen J. Ellender, D-La., told a reporter he will do all he can to get the legislative package through Congress by Labor Day. He also is reconciled to a subsidy lid but says anything lower than $55,000 would disrupt agriculture severely.

The subsidy issue has been simmering a long time. Twice in recent years the House has passed a $20,000 lid, with both efforts failing in conferences with the Senate.

This year the Senate went for a $20,000 limit. The House action headed off the lower restriction but included a measure which sets up key programs for the most bothersome of the nation's major farm commodities.

The $55,000-per-crop limit would shave about $58 million from the subsidy program if applied strictly to the more than 1,100 farmers last year who got at least that.

Bureau Plans Night to Meet the Candidates

A Hempstead County Farm Bureau Political Education Program is underway, according to president Autrey Wilson.

"Meet the Candidate" sessions will be held Friday night, August 14, 7:30 at the Farm Bureau Conference Room.

Chairman, Troy Burson, invites both men and women to attend. Farm people can be politically effective. A statement from a book recently published by U. S. News indicates how few people actually are involved. "Ninety-seven percent of Americans might be rated as 'customers.' They give nothing to any political party—no money, no work at the polls, no attendance at precinct meetings, no service as a volunteer workers for any candidate. They sit back, allowing others to get the job done. This leaves the running of government in the hands of 3 per cent of the American people. Be one of this per cent."

Temperatures to Remain Some Cooler

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Northerly winds flowing into the state are expected to keep temperatures cooler and rainfall at a minimum through Thursday.

The main factor influencing Arkansas weather is a high pressure system centered over the Great Lakes region and extending south.

The system is expected to move out of the state by the weekend, causing warmer temperatures and a chance of rain.

Highs Tuesday ranged from 91 at Fort Smith to 84 at Pine Bluff.

Bomb Threat Brings Payoff of $25,000

SEATTLE (AP) — Western Airlines officials said a plane carrying 118 passengers and a crew of seven landed safely at Seattle-Tacoma International Airport Tuesday night after the airline paid $25,000 cash in response to a telephone bomb threat.

Howard Clifford, public relations spokesman for the airline, said Western officials in Anchorage, Alaska, received the call after Flight 722 left Anchorage for Seattle.

First reports from officials of the airline and the Federal Aviation Administration indicated that the caller demanded the money as his price for telling the airline how to keep a bomb aboard from going off.

No bomb was found when the plane, a Boeing 720, landed, officials said. The FBI is investigating.

vent these going into effect.

—Repeal of the American Selling Price system of setting duties on benzoinoid chemicals and a few other products.

—Establishment, as the administration recommended, of tax-saving domestic international sales corporations. These would give U.S. exporters equivalent, sometimes superior, tax advantages to those obtainable by organizing subsidiaries abroad.

—Renewal, as sought by the administration, of limited tariff bargaining powers.

—Liberalization of the conditions under which import-hurt industries and workers could get special help, including benefit increases.

—Requirement that the present system of regulating oil imports by quotas—but not necessarily the present level of quotas—be maintained.

—Repeal of the ban on importing Soviet furs.

After a committee vote on final language Thursday, the bill heads for the House with action expected in September.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — During Martin Milner's 10 years on television, six have been behind the wheel of an automobile.

Milner guided a sports car through four hectic years of "Route 66." Most of the time, his partner in adventure was George Maharis.

When the series went into syndication, Milner moved on to motion pictures and some TV guest shots. Two years ago he climbed into the driver's seat again, this time as Officer Pete Malloy, shield 744, of "Adam 12." Jack Webb's tribute to patrol-car policemen with incidents adapted, as in "Dragnet," from the Los Angeles department's files.

"Adam 12"—radio identification of the squad car—now goes into its third season, with Milner happily adjusted to police procedures and still counting his blessings. The series may have two days of shooting on location for every one in the studio, but the locations are in Los Angeles. "Route 66," by contrast, was filmed entirely on location all over the United States.

Milner now is so securely blocked into Southern California and the five-day week that he recently acquired a 24-acre avocado farm just north of San Diego where he is building a new home for his family, which includes three children.

Where "Dragnet" concentrated on one crime from the call for detectives to solution, "Adam 12" purports to reflect the average day of a patrol car team. Milner and his partner, a probationer played by Kent McCord, are likely to handle in rapid succession incidents ranging from a quarreling couple to homicide.

"There is a real police officer assigned to the series—he's from the department's public information office," Milner said.

"He checks scripts and action and is around to give us advice on handling situations. If we're rolling in on an armed robbery, for instance, he'll tell us how to disperse police personnel. Recently he showed us how to cuff two men together in a situation where we had only one set of handcuffs."

Milner and McCord now are

MRS. GARLAND PATE

"I'll never get anything out of Social Security! I can draw on my husband's record even if I never worked under Social Security. So my taxes are just money down the drain." Sound familiar?

Special Speaker at 1st Assembly

The Rev. Raymond Thompson, secretary-treasurer of Arkansas District of the Assemblies of God, will be guest speaker at the First Assembly of God Church, 322 N. Main at 11 a.m. Sunday, according to the pastor, the Rev. C.C. Truitt.

skilled in the proper handling of evidence.

"We would never pick up a gun with a handkerchief," he said. "That would smudge any prints. We would pick it up by inserting a pencil in the barrel or by the trigger guard."

During the seasons television was under heavy criticism for violence in entertainment shows, cops-and-robbers stories were out of favor with network programmers. In recent seasons, however, they have been making a come-back. When September premieres start, police-action will be one of the most popular categories in prime evening time.

Hope, Arkansas, knows that is not the true picture. A few years ago Mrs. Pate became disabled; she is physically unable to stand and work for any length of time nor can she work sitting down.

Her husband, Garland Pate, is still working and so she could not qualify for benefits on his record. There is no provision in the Social Security law to pay disabled wife's benefits before her husband retires.

Hempstead County Memorial Hospital was Mrs. Pate's employer prior to the time she became disabled. That was several years ago. But now Mrs. Pate is receiving disability benefits from Social Security that is based, in part, on the wages she had from the hospital.

Mrs. Pate is entitled to benefits on her own record because she worked and paid the social security tax. If she had no work of her own, she could not qualify on her husband's work at this time. Mrs. Pate certainly does not feel her social security taxes were just "money down the drain." The third of each month is a welcome date now as her social security check is delivered.

A pleasant surprise was in store for Mrs. Pate when her first check was delivered by Social Security Representative Ken Hargis. Since she had been disabled for some time, Mrs. Pate's first check included some back pay.

Money down the drain? Don't you believe it! Social Security is valuable protection for men, women, and children—for all Americans.

Jim Bunning Notches His 100th Win

By TOM SALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer

A tired, but happy Jim Bunning just missed completing his milestone triumph but couldn't resist watching the dramatic ending as a last-ditch Houston rally fell short, gaining the Philadelphia veteran a place in baseball history.

The 36-year-old right-hander, who captured 118 victories with Detroit of the American League, notched his 100th triumph in the National League Tuesday night in the Phils 8-5 decision over the Houston Astros. Cy Young was the only other hurler to win at least 100 games in each league.

The veteran of 15 major league seasons was coasting with a 6-1 lead, limiting the Astros to six hits, until the roof fell in the ninth.

I said, "Oh, no not again," Bunning said afterward, referring to an Aug. 1 game against San Francisco when he left the game leading 5-4 in the ninth; then Willie Mays homered off reliever Dick Selma, prolonging Bunning's quest of his historic 100th triumph.

This time however, Selma came up with two outs to bail out Bunning, whiffing Jesus Alou with two Houston runners on base.

In other NL action, Los Angeles edged Pittsburgh 5-4, Cincinnati bombed the New York Mets 8-1, Chicago stopped San Francisco 4-1, St. Louis nipped San Diego 11-10 and Atlanta blanked Montreal 1-0.

In the American League, New York whipped Chicago 7-1, Washington topped Minnesota 3-2 in 11 innings, Detroit edged Milwaukee 2-1, Baltimore ripped California 7-0 and Oakland beat Cleveland 6-5. The Kansas City at Boston game was called by rain.

Bunning, increasing his mark to 9-11, struck out five and didn't walk a batter as he became the second pitcher in major league history to win 100 games in each league. Hall of Famer Young, 1890-99, won 249 American League decisions and 262 in the National.

"I had extra good control but it went bad in the ninth. I made some bad pitches," Bunning said.

In that inning, Houston's Joe Morgan opened with a homer and four singles and three runs followed. Joe Hoerner came on and issued another hit before Selma got the last out.

"Maybe I should have walked somebody to stop the rally," Bunning, the father of nine, quipped.

"When I came out, I started up the ramp, but then came back to watch the end. I always like to finish but I was tired out there in the ninth, the right-handed nine-time All-Star said.

Don Money drove in three Phils' runs with a double and single and Deron Johnson added a pair of run-scoring doubles.

Billy Grabarkewitz clubbed a three-run homer and Claude Osteen, 12-10, won his first game in six weeks with relief help, as the Dodgers stopped the Pirates, who remained 2½ games ahead of the Mets in the tight East Division scramble.

Tony Perez crashed a tape-measure 500-foot grand slam homer and Gary Nolan scattered seven hits in winning his eighth straight triumph.

Perez' homer was his 35th and the longest hit in Cincinnati's month-old Riverfront Stadium. It came off Mets' lower Jim McAndrew, 6-11, and was enough for Nolan, 15-4, who struck out six. He lost his shut-out in the ninth on Cleon Jones' homer.

John Bench, the majors' leader in homers, rapped his 39th and Lee May had his 24th for the Reds, runaway leaders in the West.

Randy Hundley's two-out single snapped a 1-1 tie in the sixth inning, helping the Cubs edge to within 4½ games of the Pirates. Ferguson Jenkins, 14-13, twirled a three-hitter for Chicago, holding the Giants hitless after the sixth inning.

Tom Seaver cracked a two-run homer in the eighth for the Cubs while Joe Pepitone slammed a

Boxers to Have Own Pension Fund

MONTREAL (AP) — The boxing world will begin to take care of its own with a retirement annuity plan for professional fighters launched by the World Boxing Association.

The WBA established a committee Tuesday at the second day of its annual meeting to make the necessary studies and put the scheme into effect.

Described as "revolutionary" by Charles Loeb of Cleveland, Ohio, a committee member, the annuity fund will likely give participating boxers a guaranteed monthly income or a lump sum of equal value on their retirement.

It will be financed either by annual dues paid by the boxers and managers or by voluntary cuts from fight purses.

Malcolm Forrester, a banker from Yorkville, Tenn., was appointed head of the committee in charge of overseeing the plan.

Donald "Bill" Brennan, executive secretary of the Virginia Athletic Commission, who was elected WBA president Tuesday, said the scheme "is the finest thing we could do for the sport."

Brennan, who succeeds 68-year-old Emile Bruneau of New Orleans, said he is determined to make boxing "more honest and more acceptable" in the world of sport.

Boxing, with the adoption of the plan originally proposed by Van Nixon, secretary of the Washington, D.C., Boxing Commission, becomes the last professional sport to establish a pension program.

Nixon, in demanding action, said, "It is time we began to look after our own."

Delegates representing at least 10 nations, also voted Tuesday to support tough safety standards in amateur boxing. The meeting ends today.

They said they would consider a suggestion by Brennan to establish North American and Latin American championships "to stimulate interest."

Jerry Shears, president of the Canadian Amateur Boxing Association received full WBA support in a resolution for his demands of "improvements in head-gear and other safety requirements in amateur boxing."

Judge Robert M. Summitt, chairman of the Tennessee Athletic Commission in Chattanooga, said the resolution was one of the most constructive moves taken at the meetings.

Meanwhile, the WBA reiterated its stand that the eligibility of Canadian heavyweight champion George Chuvalo is a matter for Canadian authorities to decide.

A medical committee report suggested Chuvalo be barred from the ring for medical reasons following a severe beating he received in his loss last week to George Foreman in New York.

A grand slam homer by Carl Taylor, his first ever "even in the Little Leagues," capped a five-run ninth inning Cardinal explosion as St. Louis ran its hot string to 11 victories in 13 games.

Taylor, a pinch hitter for winning reliever Harry Parker, 1-0, climaxed a Cardinal uprising which saw them come from an 8-1 deficit, scoring 10 of their 11 runs in the final three innings.

Ollie Brown drove in four Padres runs with three hits, including a homer, while Joe Torre had a solo blast and Lou Brock four hits for the Cards.

Hank Aaron drove in the only run with a fifth inning single and Jim Nash, 12-4, hurled a three-hitter, striking out six in the Braves' victory.

PITCHING—Jim Nash, Braves, stopped Montreal on three hits as Atlanta edged the Expos 1-0.

Twins' Losing Streak Is Still on

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Tricky hops aren't doing Bill Rigney's ulcers any favors ... and neither are the bouncy Oakland A's.

The Washington Senators upended Rigney's suddenly stumbling Minnesota Twins 3-2 Tuesday night on Paul Casanova's bad-hop double in the 11th inning.

The loss extended the Twins' winless string to four games and cut their lead in the American League West to six lengths over the surging A's, who bounced past Cleveland 6-5 for their fourth straight victory to grab the runner-up spot.

California bowed to Baltimore 7-0 and dropped to third place, one-half game behind Oakland, while the New York Yankees trimmed the Chicago White Sox 7-1 and Detroit nipped Milwaukee 2-1 in other AL action. The Kansas City-Boston game was rained out.

In the National League, Cincinnati blasted the New York Mets 8-1; Los Angeles topped Pittsburgh 5-4; the Chicago Cubs topped San Francisco 4-1; Atlanta shaded Montreal 1-0; St. Louis outsluged San Diego 11-10 and Philadelphia beat Houston 6-5.

The Senators broke a 2-2 deadlock in the 11th when Ed Brinkman singled and raced home as Casanova's drive to left skipped over Rick Renick's head and rolled to the fence.

Minnesota's Harmon Killebrew slammed his 36th homer and third in as many games with one on in the first inning. The Senators tied it in the eighth on Aurelio Rodriguez' two-run wallop which thwarted Jim Perry's bid to become the first 18-game winner in the majors.

The A's, who started the Twins' skid by taking the last three of a four-game set at Minnesota last weekend, struck for four runs in the fifth inning to wipe out a 4-2 Cleveland lead and then held off the Indians behind the solid relief pitching of Jim Roland.

"All of a sudden, our confidence has become a big factor," said Frank Fernandez, who drove in four Oakland runs with singles in the fourth and fifth. "A week ago, that wasn't true."

Paul Blair and Brooks Robinson slammed two-run homers off Andy Messersmith in the first inning and Frank Robinson, making his first start in a week, also homered as the Orioles protected their 9½-game bulge in the AL East.

Mike Cuellar scattered four California hits for his 16th victory of the season and sixth in succession against the Angels over the last two years.

The second place Yanks hit four homers for the first time this season, Jake Gibbs poling a pair and Jim Lytle and pitcher Mel Stottlemyre one apiece, to beat the White Sox.

Don Wert's two-out single in the sixth delivered the winning run for the Tigers, who got strong pitching from Mike Killebrew and Tom Timmerman.

R. Petty Captures W. Va. 300

ONA, W.Va. (AP) — Richard Petty, piloted his 1970 Plymouth to victory in the West Virginia 300, finishing eight laps ahead of his nearest competitor Tuesday night.

The race over the 7-16 mile asphalt oval ran at an average speed of 78.358 miles per hour.

The race ended without injury or mishap, despite a total power failure as the field was running on the 45th lap at close to 80 miles an hour.

James Hylton was second in a 1959 Ford. He was eight laps behind Petty.

The points standings in the NASCAR Grand National Circuit remained the same after the 300-lap race. Hylton now leads with 2,538 points. Bobby Isaac is still second in the rankings at 2,507 and Petty remains in 5th at 2,150.

Trevino Sets Alarm Clocks for Tourney

By WILL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Lee Trevino is back from his Mexican holiday, fully rested and with a roomful of alarm clocks set for the PGA Golf Championship.

"I won't oversleep on this one," the voluble Mexican-American said today, referring to his failure to make the starting time in the $250,000 Westchester Classic a couple of weeks ago, thus blowing a chance at a $150,000 paycheck.

"My wife's got an alarm clock. My in-laws all have alarm clocks. The kids have alarm clocks. They're not going to let me miss this time."

Trevino, who has a 9:07 a.m. EDT start, is one of the prime favorites in this 52nd national tee party of the pros along with British Open winner Jack Nicklaus, U.S. Open titleholder Tony Jacklin of Britain, Masters king Bill Casper, Arnold Palmer and Gary Player.

A field of 135 will tee off Thursday over the 6,962-yard Southern Hills course which the pros describe respectfully as a heavyweight giant with a minimum of birdie opportunities.

"There's not a makeup hole on the premises," warned Palmer. Ben Hogan, the four-time U.S. Open winner, decided the demanding layout and Tulsa's sweltering heat were too tough for his ailing left knee. He withdrew, as did Harold Henning of South Africa, who is ill.

Trevino called "Southern Hills" "one of the toughest courses I've played—you can bet there's not a man in the field that won't have one round of at least 74."

"The fairways are about 25 steps across and they'll all bend. That makes them about 18 yards in the hitting area. The par 3 holes are all tough and the par 5, will really put pepper in your salt."

The colorful 1968 U.S. Open champion said he felt mentally rested after a two-week layoff and added: "You're going to have to be a good driver and thinker to win here. I like my chances."

Palmer, bidding for the only major title that has eluded him, and Jacklin, who returned to the tour last week after a vacation in Britain, practiced together Tuesday and drew most of the gallery.

"It's a good course," said Palmer. "The greens are in fine shape. My only objection is the 13th hole. It should be a par 5."

The 470-yard hole has a bank running across the fairway, and the best tee shots don't clear it. Thus, the golfer is hitting a second shot from the side of a hill to a blind hole protected by two lakes and five sand traps.

The staid country club, which has been scene of other national championships, was shaken Tuesday by the report of a bizarre hippie plot to disrupt the tournament. The hippies' plan, according to informants, is to send five unclad girls racing over the course.

With the police distracted, another group is supposed to sneak onto the course and paint a huge "Peace" sign with grass killer on one of the greens.

Special patrols have been assigned to the course and an all-night vigil maintained.

He's Losing Respect for B'dway Joe

By BEN THOMAS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Al Atkinson says he'd like to talk to Joe Namath, but he doesn't know how to get in touch with the New York Jets' quarterback. Phil Iselein would also like to talk to Broadway Joe, but Iselein wants Namath to do the telephoning.

Atkinson, the Jet defensive captain, retired last week. He had some harsh things to say about Namath. Atkinson, hinting Tuesday that he may end his retirement, said of Namath: "I love Joe, whether he believes it or not. If I live to be 80, he will still be one of my closest friends."

But, he added: "It's just that over the last few years I have found it harder and harder to respect him."

"Joe knows where I am. I'm not hard to find," said Iselein. "All he has to do is call me."

And Namath? He has been seen around Manhattan, but he's not talking—at least for publication. Iselein says Namath told him he had problems. That's believed to be a synonym for more money, in this case.

Iselein says he's letting Weeb Ewbank, the Jets' coach and general manager, worry about Atkinson.

Atkinson told John Maginnis of The Associated Press Philadelphia bureau his thoughts about returning to the Jets centered around the injuries to Gerry Philbin and Mike Stromberg, other defensive stalwarts on the American Conference team.

"I do feel a certain obligation to the team," said Atkinson. "Something is working inside me. It doesn't have anything to do with what Joe does or doesn't do, but with Philbin hurt and Stromberg out, that leaves the Jets with nobody."

On the subject of holdout quarterbacks named Joe, the St. Paul, Minn., Dispatch said Tuesday it had telephoned Ewbank and was told that the Jets aren't interested in Joe Kapp, whose demanding a whopping $1.25 million from the Minnesota Vikings. He's been offered $100,000 a year for three years.

"I'm not interested in him," Ewbank said. "I can answer that question quick. No player's worth that much."

Defensive back Mike Weger came to terms with the Detroit Lions and started working out Tuesday. The Lions also have corner back Lem Barney without a contract, but Barney's been drilling while dickering for more dough.

Ray Parson, the Lions' No. 2 draft choice from Minnesota, underwent knee ligament surgery after being injured in the exhibition loss to the Kansas City Chiefs last Saturday. Parson, an offensive tackle, will be sidelined 10-12 weeks.

And there were these other tidbits Tuesday from the pro football training camps:

—Veteran Blanton Collier, Cleveland Browns' coach, says he's quite impressed by rookie Jerry Sherk, a defensive tackle from Oklahoma State. Sherk, according to Collier, has been paying attention to tips from the coaching staff and the rookie was able to get to the opposing quarterback in the Browns' exhibition game with Los Angeles.

The Browns also reported de-

Fred McNair Up & Coming in Tennis

SOUTHAMPTON, N.Y. (AP) — Fred McNair is one of the young players coming to the fore in tennis.

The unseeded teen-ager from Chevy Chase, Md., scored the greatest victory of his career in upsetting second-seeded Gene Scott of New York Tuesday in the U.S. Amateur Grass Court Championships on wet courts and in a strong wind at the Meadow Club.

"It was my best victory ever," said McNair after he had served a love game to wrap up his 6-3, 2-6, 6-4 decision over Scott, a former Davis Cupper who ranks 12th nationally.

McNair, who will enter his sophomore year at North Carolina next month, needs just one more victory to reach the quarter-finals. He will try for that today against Jim Connors, a Southern California student from Belleville, Ill., another of the young breed competing in this amateur event.

Connors advanced by defeating Grant Bailey of Largo, Fla., 6-0, 6-3.

Bob Alloo, Los Carlos, Calif., and Rich Bornstedt of Redlands, Calif., also scored upset victories and will play each other today in the third round. Alloo beat sixth-seeded Tom Leonard, Los Angeles, 2-6, 6-3, 7-5. Bornstedt eliminated Modesto Vasquez, Argentina, 3-6, 7-5, 6-3.

Top-seeded Zan Guerry of Lookout Mountain, Tenn., meantime, caught up with the field. He defeated Bertram Knowles of The Bahamas 7-5, 6-2 in the first round and Sandy Mayer, Woodmere, N.Y., 6-3, 6-4 in the second.

Joe Louis Honored in Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — One of Detroit's most heroic sports champions—former heavyweight champion Joe Louis—will return to his hometown today to be on hand when fans pay him tribute with a night in his honor.

Louis, known in his fighting days as the "Brown Bomber," and his wife Martha will fly in from Denver to be guests of honor at the "Salute to the Champ—Joe Louis" program tonight at Cobo Arena.

Louis, who held the heavyweight crown longer than any other champion, was given permission to make the trip by doctors at a Denver hospital where he receives periodic psychiatric treatment. Money raised by the affair will help cover the cost of his hospital care.

Gov. William Milliken has declared today "Joe Louis Day" and will attend the festivities to award the Brown Bomber with a proclamation noting his day. Many sports greats—including Bill Russell and Sugar Ray Robinson—will also be present.

Denver also celebrates Joe Louis Day today.

Simpson Sues Rockets for $3 Million

DETROIT (AP) — Ralph Simpson has gone to court in an effort to get a spot on the roster of the Denver Rockets of the American Basketball Association.

Simpson has filed a suit asking for $3 million damages from the Rockets, the ABA and league commissioner Jack Dolph. Money is not the major issue in the suit, however, since the Rockets have said they will honor Simpson's $1-million contract whether or not he is allowed to play.

Simpson, a sophomore stand-out at Michigan State last year, was signed by the Rockets this spring. The Rocket said Simpson was eligible for signing since he was a "hardship case." His father had been seriously ill and ABA rules allow teams to sign college players under such circumstances.

The signing, which came less than a year after the Rockets signed Detroit All-American sophomore Spencer Haywood, provoked protests from college athletic groups, including the NCAA, which threatened to ban ABA recruiters from all NCAA games and schools.

Dolph then ruled Simpson could not play until his college eligibility expired before the 1972-73 season.

The suit, filed in U.S. District Court in Detroit, charges that "no valid or reasonable excuse exists" to prevent Simpson's playing.

Simpson's attorney said the right to play is what is really at stake.

"Playing is awfully vital to an athlete," said lawyer Richard Suhrenreich Tuesday. "If he is prohibited from playing professional basketball and college basketball, you're talking about an athlete sitting out for three years."

CRANSTON, R.I. (AP) — The Rev. Daniel Berrigan, found by FBI agents after four months as a fugitive from a three-year prison term for destroying draft records in Maryland, is in custody awaiting transfer to a federal penitentiary.

"They had us surrounded," attorney William Stringfellow said of the dozen FBI agents who apprehended the Roman Catholic priest Tuesday on Block Island at a house owned by Stringfellow and poet Anthony Towne.

The agents found the 49-year-old Jesuit priest in the front room.

Father Berrigan had made several public appearances before peace groups and given some interviews to news media since going underground in April rather than surrender for the prison term imposed on him April 9.

He had lost all appeals from his sentence but said he wanted to show authorities "they can no longer lock people up on their order."

In Baltimore Tuesday night, about 40 persons demonstrated peacefully but loudly outside offices of the Catholic archdiocese to protest the arrest.

Father Berrigan was one of the "Catonsville Nine," who were convicted of destroying draft records in Catonsville, Md., on May 17, 1968, as a protest of the war in Vietnam.

Advance Peek at Yanks Not Reassuring

OTTAWA (AP) — Canadian golfers got an advance peek at the calibre of young U.S. competitors on hand for today's opening round of the Canadian Amateur Golf Championship, but it wasn't very reassuring.

John Mahaffey, a wiry 22-year-old from San Antonio, Tex., got his first-ever look at the Ottawa Hunt and Golf Club course Tuesday afternoon.

Then he unshipped his bag and toured the 6,714-yard layout in a seven-under-par 66, just one stroke off the course record held jointly by resident professional Ken Clark and U.S. pro giant Jack Nicklaus.

"Nice course," Mahaffey said after the round, in which he had eight birdies and one bogey.

Told the course record was 65, Mahaffey said he might have carded that except that one stroke got caught in a late afternoon wind gust, "which probably cost me a chance to tie."

State Hurdler Wins Event in Germany

COLOGNE, Germany (AP) — Thomas Hill of Arkansas State University won the 100 meter hurdles with a time of 13.6 seconds at the international track and field meet here Tuesday night.

Americans won seven events — five in the men's competition and two in the women's — before a crowd of about 20,000 spectators.

Willie Davenport of Baton Rouge, La., finished second in the 100 meter hurdles in 13.7.

Canadians Lead in Golf Tourney

TORONTO (AP) — The first-round lead in the Canadian Women's Amateur Golf Championship was shared by Gail Moore of New Westminster, B.C., and Marlene Streit of Fonthill, Ont., with one-over-par 74s. Best performance by an American was an 81 carded by Elizabeth Shea of Los Angeles.

Desegregation Plan Filed by Plaintiffs

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — John W. Walker, attorney for the plaintiffs in the Little Rock school desegregation suit, Tuesday filed a desegregation plan for the Little Rock district in U.S. District Court here.

The plaintiffs' plan submitted to U.S. District Judge J. Smith Henley would require extensive transportation of students.

Henley is expected to rule on the plan at the same time he rules on the plan submitted Monday by the Little Rock School Board.

The newest plan called for two high schools — Hall and Central — that would accommodate all the district's 11th and 12th grade students.

Henley has scheduled a hearing for Thursday to rule on the plans.

Pornography Commission Not Nixons

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House says the President's Commission on Pornography, whose preliminary report is under attack in Congress, is not a part of the Nixon administration.

"This is not Nixon's commission," Ronald L. Ziegler, the President's news secretary, said Tuesday. "It was formed under a previous administration. He did not appoint the members, and the commission's recommendations are not those of this administration."

Ziegler made the statement as the House postal operations subcommittee was challenging the draft report. The biggest fuss has come over tests, sanctioned by the panel, in which reactions of 23 young men to stag movies were checked.

Ziegler said no White House staff members were involved in the experiment.

"There is no intent to prejudice the findings of the report," Ziegler said. But he said Nixon "believes pornography and obscenity relate to adverse social conduct."

The commission's draft report concluded that exposure to pornography does not result in an increase in sex crimes.

Travelers Downed 12-5 by Dodgers

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Albuquerque scattered 17 hits among three Arkansas pitchers Tuesday to swamp the Travelers 12-5 in Texas League baseball.

The only Dodger who didn't get a hit was pitcher Jim Flynn, who notched his 16th win of the season against two losses.

The Dodgers put the game out of reach with a five-run third inning in which Bob Cummins hit a bases-loaded triple.

Danny Napoleon and Wayne Dees slugged home runs for the Travelers.

Magazine Admits Error in RR Article

NEW YORK (AP) — Fortune magazine says an article in its August issue on accounting practices of the Penn Central Co. was in error in some instances.

The article had said that "unique" bookkeeping methods enabled the company to present a loss of at least $95 million as a profit of $4.4 million for 1969.

The article examined the events that led to the company's railroad subsidiary filing for reorganization under the bankruptcy law.

A spokesman for Fortune said Monday the September issue will carry a letter from a senior partner of Penn Central's auditors, Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co., listing a series of errors in Fortune's article.

An editorial in the new issue will say: "In its references to accounting practices Fortune acknowledged that its own analysis of the Penn Central figures, drawn from reports on file with the Interstate Commerce Commission, is in error in the instances cited."

Governors to Make Agnew Campaign Issue

By WALTER R. MEARS
AP Political Writer

LAKE OF THE OZARKS, Mo. (AP) — Democrats are planning to make a campaign issue of the words and views of Vice President Spiro T. Agnew this fall, particularly in the big industrial states where their state house fortunes are down.

Republican governors and White House tacticians will do some political strategy making of their own today in the seclusion of a nearby resort.

Lawrence F. O'Brien, the Democratic national chairman, conferred with his party's minority bloc of governors, then said he was not concerned at the prospect that President Nixon and Agnew "will be heavily engaged, out front," working for Republican nominees in the Nov. 3 elections.

He said that might produce a real debate about national issues, particularly with Agnew.

The political talk escalated as the nation's governors held the windup session of their 62nd national conference.

Gov. John N. Dempsey of Connecticut said the Democratic campaign plan amounts to making Agnew the issue in some states.

"The feeling is that Agnew is so controversial, and that it would help us, particularly in some of the Northeastern states," Dempsey said.

Vital Records Recovered From Pond

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A briefcase containing important records of the Southern Regional Environmental Conservation Council was recovered Tuesday from a pond in a Little Rock park.

Don S. Smith, a member of the state Public Service Commission, said Monday the briefcase was stolen from his car last weekend.

Smith said the records were vital to the work of the Southern Governors Conference's efforts to win authority to act regionally against pollution.

The case was found by several girls playing in the park.

Ford Regrets Nixon Veto

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Education Commissioner A. W. Ford said Tuesday he regretted that President Nixon had vetoed a $4.1 billion education appropriation bill.

Ford said there was no way to determine how his agency would be affected by the veto.

Legislation Would Protect Newsmen

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Sen. Oscar Alagood said Tuesday he would support legislation to protect newsmen from having to reveal confidential news sources.

Alagood, a former newscaster, made the offer in a letter to John R. Starr, president of Sigma Delta Chi, the society of journalists. He was reacting to a statement by U.S. Atty. Gen. John Mitchell, who told the American Bar Association Monday at St. Louis that the Justice Department intends to retain its power to subpoena newsmen where the "fair administration of justice requires it."

Alagood said he would not argue against subpoenaing newsmen "as long as it's within the area of seeking additional information concerning the disposition of a case." But he said, "This area should not include the revealing of a confidential news source."

DIVORCEE

Dear Helen:

There is a divorcee in our group who is driving the wives batty. She telephones their husbands for "advice." After being manless for a year, she still can't change a fuse, or get her car started (I think she jerks a wire on purpose), or manage her son, or hammer a nail. So she makes the rounds of husbands until she gets an easy mark who will come over and help.

My husband is her favorite, he being good-hearted and sorry for her because "she got a rotten deal." I'm not so sure. Maybe her man walked out because he couldn't stand her whining.

Anyway, my Bill is over there right now, probably having a drink. That's one thing she does well: Mix drinks for men. This time it was a cupboard in the garage that was about to fall down. Somehow she always manages to call after the kids are in bed, so the wife can't come along.

I trust Bill but — what do you do about a good-looking divorcee who wants a husband? Anybody's husband will do! —

NOT EXACTLY JEALOUS

Dear NEJ:

Tell Bill what no doubt the

These Booklets Helpful To Arthritics and Aged

Q—Can a woman ovulate more than once a month? How long does the ovum remain active after release from the ovary? How long does the sperm remain potent before it dies?

A—Ovulation occurs only once every lunar month but sometimes two ova, instead of one, are discharged by the ovary. If fertilized, they become nonidentical twins. It takes about three days for the ovum to be carried down the uterine tube to the uterus but, unless it is fertilized before it enters the tube, it will be swept through the uterus without becoming implanted in the uterine wall. Sperm remain in the female reproductive tract for one to three days but they remain potent for only 12 to 24 hours.

Q—Are plantar warts contagious? What happens if they are not treated? How can they be cured?

A—Although plantar warts are caused by a virus, they are not contagious in the ordinary sense. If not treated, they will keep right on caus-

If you can make four hearts without looking at the East and West cards, consider yourself an expert. Maybe not quite as good as Edgar Kaplan of New York, who played and made the contract, but good enough so that your dummy play will stand up against almost anyone.

In fact, if you can make it after seeing all the cards, you are a very good dummy player.

Edgar ruffed the second spade and studied the hand very carefully. He wanted to be able to ruff a diamond in dummy. If he went right after diamonds, East would surely get in with the ace and lead a third spade. West would overruff and, if East happened to hold three trumps, Edgar would be set.

How about playing out his ace and king of trumps first? Again, if East held three trumps and the diamond ace, things wouldn't work out.

Eventually Edgar saw a way to have his cake and eat it, too. He did draw two rounds of trumps, stopping in dummy. Then he played dummy's deuce of diamonds. East couldn't afford to play the ace and put in the jack, so Edgar took his king.

Then he played ace-king-jack of clubs, overtaking the jack with dummy's queen. East couldn't afford to ruff, since he would be unable to lead that third round of trumps. Now Edgar ruffed a spade with his next-to-last trump and led the three of clubs to dummy's nine. Once more East had to discard. Now Edgar led dummy's last spade and ruffed it with his last trump.

This left him with 10 tricks in and that was all he needed.

Nerve Gas Rolls Safely Into Port

By HOWARD BENEDICT
Associated Press Writer
SUNNY POINT, N.C. (AP) — Stevedores today begin loading 418 steel-jacketed vaults of nerve gas aboard an old Liberty ship which will become a tomb at the bottom of the sea for the deadly chemical.

Two heavily guarded trains rolled into this military port Tuesday night and early today after uneventful trips from Army arsenals at Anniston, Ala., and Richmond, Ky.

After the trains have been inspected, dock workers are to use 50-ton cranes to transfer the concrete-and-steel coffins to the Liberty ship, a relic of World War II brought out of mothballs for the assignment.

The loading is expected to take two or three days. Then the government plans to have Navy tugs tow the 442-foot vessel, the LeBrannon Russell Briggs, to a point in the Atlantic 282 miles east of Cape Kennedy, Fla. Valves and gas drains are to be opened to let in water so the Briggs will sink 16,000 feet to the bottom.

The scuttling is expected next Tuesday. But the tugs, accompanied by a destroyer escort and Coast Guard cutter, will not leave port until they have a 96-hour prediction of good weather. The Army and Navy want to accomplish the job before September, usually the most active month for hurricanes in the Atlantic.

Each of the concrete coffins, capped by a quarter-inch layer of metal, contains 30 M55 nerve gas rockets, a total of 12,540.

The gas is called GB, or "Sarin," and is capable of killing a person in minutes after attacking part of the central nervous system. It is in liquid form but would quickly turn to gas if it escaped.

In addition to the GB gas, sealed in one of the Anniston coffins is a 10½-pound container of VX nerve gas, the substance that is believed to have killed 8,400 sheep when tested at a Utah proving ground in 1968.

Army chemical experts and the National Academy of Sciences say the gas, manufactured during the Korean War, must be disposed of quickly because the rockets are deteriorating. It is believed the gas is seeping into the rockets' propellant chambers, with possible danger of detonation.

The only disposal method that can be achieved quickly, the Army says, is to place the vaults aboard the ship and sink it. To destroy the supply with an underground nuclear blast, for example, would require 15 months' preparation.

There has been opposition from U.N. Secretary-General U Thant, a few congressmen, and Florida Gov. Claude Kirk, who filed suit Tuesday in U.S. District Court in Washington.

The suit, filed jointly with the Environmental Defense Fund, asks that the Army be required to prove that the dumping site is the best possible location and that the scuttling plan is the safest disposal method.

Lawyers for Kirk and the fund said they would appear in court today to ask for a temporary restraining order pending settlement of the suit.

SHARP REACTION

amounted to less than half the additional cost to the government from increased interest rates.

Ford, however, said, "When you spend more than you take in, you inevitably add to the cost of interest to the federal government."

Nixon said his vetoes were "painful, but necessary to hold down the rising cost of living."

Democratic national chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien said Nixon's action "illustrated in starkest terms the distorted priorities of his administration."

The overriding cause of the rising cost of living is "Nixon's refusal to use the powers of the presidency to control excessive price and wage decisions, and his refusal to use the economic tools which Congress has given him," O'Brien added.

Democrats hoped the lure of big money allotments for veterans' hospitals and schools would give impetus to their drive.

One bill would provide $18 billion in new funds for the Veterans' Administration and a score of other agencies.

JCs to Decide on Constitution

Five Civilians Killed in Mid-East Fight

TEL AVIV (AP) — Five Israeli civilians were killed at the southern end of the Golan Heights Tuesday night, the Israeli military command announced. Officials said it appeared that their jeep struck a mine.

A spokesman said the bodies of the three women and two men were found in their jeep near their settlement, Ramat Magshimim, on the plateau which Israel took from Syria in the 1967 war.

On April 23, two Israeli civilians were killed and another five wounded in a Syrian ambush in the area. Neither Syria nor the Arab guerrillas based in neighboring areas of Syria and Jordan accepted the cease-fire in which Egypt, Israel and Jordan joined last weekend, and Israeli troops killed an Arab infiltrator in a fire fight at the southern end of the heights Monday night.

The command in Tel Aviv also reported that small arms fire from Jordan wounded an Israeli soldier on border patrol today near Newe Ur, in the Jordan valley. A spokesman said the fire was returned.

Guerrillas threw an explosive at an Israeli patrol in Rafiah, at the southern end of the Gaza Strip, slightly wounding 14 Arab bystanders, but there were no Israeli casualties, the command said. Most of the injured were children.

Cairo's semi-official newspaper Al Ahran reported Algeria is withdrawing the 2,000 soldiers it has had on the Suez Canal front since the 1967 war. The Algerian government apparently was prompted by Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser's acceptance of the cease-fire, which Algeria strongly opposes.

The Algerians have been reported in action only once since the war, during an artillery exchange in March 1969.

Al Ahran also said the Egyptian Foreign Ministry has told U.N. peace negotiator Gunnar

Wednesday, August 12, 1970

V. Jarring that Cairo wants his peace talks to be held in New York with the Egyptian ambassador to the United Nations, Mohammed Hassan el Zayyat, as Egypt's representative.

Israel reportedly prefers talks in Cyprus with the foreign ministers on hand for the indirect negotiations via Jarring.

Introducing the lowest-lead, highest-octane gasoline for the money. Anywhere.

New Big Plus.

We've taken lead out, kept the octane high. And we've priced it below premium.

To help clean the air.

Cleaning the air is the biggest thing we wanted to accomplish. So we took lead out of Big Plus. Actually, there wasn't that much lead to begin with. One-and-a-half cc's of tetraethyl lead, less than an eyedropper-full in a gallon. Now we've removed one cc of that. To make Big Plus 99.98% lead-free on a volume basis.

Then we doubled the amount of engine-cleaning detergent, to reduce exhaust emissions even more.

It all adds up to this: Big Plus can cut automotive air pollution from your car significantly. Right now.

9 out of 10 drivers can use Big Plus without worrying about engine knock.

Big Plus is high in octane.

It has what engineers call a 'research octane' rating of 96. Octane, of course, is not the only guide to choosing a gasoline. But it's important.

Big Plus will work perfectly in cars that don't have real high-compression engines. Cars that do should use our premium gasoline, Esso Extra.

There are 83,000,000 cars on the road today. What we've done is to make Big Plus an anti-pollution gasoline that 9 out of 10 drivers of today's cars can use without worrying about engine knock. And it'll be good for the 1971 cars, too.

Why we didn't take out all the lead.

We could have, of course. But engine testing shows that some lead is needed to prevent possible valve damage.

So we left the minimum amount in. And still made a cleaner gasoline. Try it soon. And help your car run clean.

There may be other questions about gasoline you'd like answered.

So we've prepared a comprehensive brochure. You can get it free at Esso stations. Or write Humble's Consumer Affairs office, Box 2180, Houston, Texas 77001.

Helps The Kids

No one places a higher value on education than the hard-working man who doesn't have one. And no one places a higher value on hard work than the successful man who no longer has to do it.

This keeps a lot of poor kids from growing up ignorant. An it keeps a lot of rich kids from growing up lazy. — Goldsboro (N.C.) News-Argus

Buck Fever Again

Whatever other factors are involved in the financial rhetoric going on about The Medical Center, one thing is undebatable:

The only two segments of American society anyone who can afford proper medical care — when the cost of doctors, drugs and hospital rooms and services are all considered — are the very rich or the very poor. The former can still barely afford it and the latter can claim it through welfare arrangements.

The rest of us are being priced out of any treatment much more complicated than taking another aspirin tablet. News that yet another round of rising hospital prices may come are driving a lot of us to that right now, too. — Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer

Taxation By Subterfuge

Congress finally may have discovered that taxes are not popular with the folks back home, especially new taxes. At any rate, the lawmakers in their infinite wisdom have figured out a way of levying a new tax and placing the blame on someone else.

It happened almost unnoticed in the language of the bill which increased airline fares by 3 per cent beginning July 1. This 3 per cent increase is a federal tax, to be added to the existing 3 per cent federal tax. The purpose is to raise sixteen billion dollars to pay for airport improvements and otherwise make air travel safer.

But, in passing the revenue-raising measure, Congress stipulated the added 3 per cent could not be identified on the ticket as a tax, nor can the airlines advertise the fact the added cost is not of their doing. In short, the public is supposed to think—and has no way of knowing otherwise—that it is the airlines which are receiving the added bonus.

If it weren't for the fact that the airline business has some long strings attached to Washington, one or more of the lines ought to ignore the restriction and "tell it like it is" in the ads. Taxation by subterfuge ought to be unconstitutional, if it isn't. — Shreveport (La.) Journal

Heavy Allied Casualties in 2 Battles

By ROBERT TUCKMAN
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese forces battled the North Vietnamese for the fourth day today at Fire Base O'Reilly, in the northern part of the country, and claimed 96 enemy killed in two battles in the south. But Saigon's forces suffered heavy casualties in one of the latter engagements.

A company manning an outpost about a mile south of O'Reilly beat back an attack before dawn by a North Vietnamese company and reported 10 of the enemy killed. The defenders said two of their men were wounded.

Military spokesmen said contact with the North Vietnamese continued during the morning.

The artillery base 27 miles west of Hue has been under mortar and automatic weapons attack since Sunday by massing North Vietnamese troops who also have made several probing ground attacks against outposts.

The base and its outposts are defended by a 665-man battalion from the South Vietnamese 1st Division, supported by American helicopter gunships and fighter-bombers.

The enemy force in the area is estimated at 1,500 men. O'Reilly is one of five mountain artillery strongpoints strung along North Vietnamese supply and infiltration routes to the populous coastal lowlands to the east.

A government force about 45 miles west of Saigon reported killing 45 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese Tuesday in a battle in the Parrot's Beak area of Cambodia. Fifteen South Vietnamese troops were killed, and 70 wounded. It was one of the highest government tolls in recent weeks.

South Vietnamese infantrymen fought another engagement Tuesday in the Mekong Delta 43 miles southwest of Saigon. The government's military headquarters reported 51 Viet Cong killed, 28 of them by helicopter gunships, and said there was only one government casualty, a wounded man.

In Cambodia, the Cambodian military command reported that government forces drove off an enemy attack on Dang Kor, within five miles of Phnom Penh. It was the third attack in five days within rocket range of the Cambodian capital, and observers there expect the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese to begin shelling the city soon.

Military sources said nearly a division of enemy troops are now within 40 miles of Phnom Penh, and more and more are moving within striking distance of the capital.

Mills Expects Approval of Trade Bill

By EDMOND Le BRETON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new foreign trade bill to curtail imports but giving the president broad power to ease the restrictions has been put together by the House Ways and Means Committee.

The bill was hammered together during weeks of controversy over such things as quotas on textile and shoe imports.

Officials were chary of predicting the impact of the measure on consumer prices in this country and on the United States' relations with its trading partners. For some 35 years the national policy has been to press for freer exchange of goods.

There was agreement that any restriction of supply tends to raise the price of an article.

Adding to the uncertainty is the possibility the Senate may try to make the bill even more restrictive. Its final shape will not be known until after the two branches of Congress name conferees to work out the ultimate language.

The measure gives Nixon some of the things he asked for and others—such as shoe quotas—which he opposed. Ways and Means Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., said he does not expect a veto if the bill is enacted in its present form.

Major provisions call for: —Mandatory quotas on imports of textile articles and footwear. Exporting countries could avoid these by negotiating voluntary limitations. The president could, in the national interest, lift the restrictions by category or country of origin.

—Procedures under which the Tariff Commission, by finding that certain imports damage U.S. business and labor, could call for countermeasures, including quotas, on any goods. The president, again by invoking national interest, could pre-

Manson chose Kanarek to represent him after the court said he could not act as his own attorney.

Hughes said Manson also objected to Kanarek's line of questioning. Three defense attorneys have complained that Kanarek appears to be trying to "dump" three women codefendants to help Manson's case. They objected to repetitious accounts by the key witness, Linda Kasabian, of the women's roles in the killings.

On trial with Manson, 35, charged with murder-conspiracy in the slayings of the actress and six others a year ago, are Patricia Krenwinkel, 22, Susan Atkins, 21, and Miss Van Houten, 20.

Mrs. Kasabian appeared pale and tired Tuesday in her 12th day on the stand. She was charged with the same offenses but has been granted immunity from prosecution. She spoke softly and was often admonished to speak up.

Sharp Reaction From Congress to Veto of Education, VA Bill

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Democrats, reacting sharply to President Nixon's veto of education and government agency money bills, spearheaded an attack today to reverse the chief executive's action.

The Democrats were expected to receive some support from Republicans who earlier had urged Nixon to let the bills become law without his signature.

Nixon vetoed Tuesday the $4.4 billion education appropriation and $18 billion measure to run a variety of federal agencies on grounds they pose "a threat to every American's pocketbook."

The two bills would have added nearly $1 billion to the administration's budget recommendations. Nixon said they represent "the kind of big spending that would drive up the prices or demand higher taxes."

House Democratic leaders, hoping to capture the two-thirds margin necessary to override Presidential vetoes, scheduled the showdown votes Thursday as the first order of business.

Democratic leaders were optimistic about their chances for overriding the Office of Education bill, but less certain about the prospects for the larger measure. Many Republicans, including Minority Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan, shared that appraisal.

The announcement that Nixon vetoed the bills prompted a sharp exchange on the House floor. Rep. Hale Boggs, D-La.,

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Charles M. Manson's attorney, in his eighth day of cross-examining the state's key witness in the Sharon Tate murder trial, has drawn the fire of the judge, other defense lawyers and Manson himself.

"Manson feels he unleashed Mr. Kanarek by letting him ask a few questions, and now he can't get the leash back on," said Ronald Hughes, attorney for one of Manson's codefendants, Leslie Van Houten.

Hughes said Manson became so disgruntled with Irving Kanarek's questioning that he decided to stop eating until Kanarek stopped cross-examining.

Sheriff's officers said Manson had milk and coffee in jail Tuesday, but no solid food.

Hughes said Manson also objected to Kanarek's line of questioning. Three defense attorneys have complained that Kanarek appears to be trying to "dump" three women codefendants to help Manson's case. ## Crucial Vote Due Today on Missile Issue

By LAWRENCE L. KNUTSON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — With the outcome too close to call, the Senate faces a crucial vote on restricting the Safeguard antiballistic missile system, amid warnings a vote against the ABM will be counted a vote against President Nixon.

Supporters of Safeguard claimed victory Tuesday morning, but by nightfall the situation was so cloudy no one was sure even which of two amendments would be used to attack the ABM system.

The vote was scheduled at 3:30 p.m. today.

The vote assured a new Senate-White House confrontation a day after Nixon vetoed two domestic spending bills because they exceeded his budget by more than $1 billion.

Most senators opposed to Safeguard have contended the billions it may cost—$50 billion by the estimate of one critic—could better be used to ease homefront crises.

The pending $19.2 billion military procurement bill contains $1.4 billion for Safeguard during the next fiscal year.

Announcements by three Democrats only added to the confusion about the outcome of the ABM vote.

Sen. Jennings Randolph, D-W.Va., and Sen. Clinton Anderson, D-N.M., announced they will vote for an amendment which prohibits extension of the ABM to two more sites requested by Nixon. The amendment is sponsored by Sens. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., and Philip A. Hart, D-Mich.

The sites requested by Nixon would be at Whittman Air Force Base, Mo., and Warren Air Force Base, Wyo.

Sen. Thomas J. McIntyre, D-N.H., said he will vote against Cooper-Hart but for another amendment to bar expansion of the two new sites and spend $322 million to beef up the ABM at the two original sites at Malmstrom and Grand Forks Air Force bases.

The original Safeguard program was approved by a one-vote margin last year.

Postal Reform Bill Signed By Nixon

By MARK BROWN
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon signed the postal reform bill today. He said the task of overhauling the Post Office was accomplished only through bipartisan support that "showed the system at its best."

"There is no Republican way or Democratic way to deliver the mail," Nixon said at signing ceremonies in the office of Postmaster General Winton M. Blount. "There's only the right way, and that's what this occasion is all about."

Flanked by six of his predecessors, Blount presented Nixon with a replica of the system's new symbol: a streamlined bald eagle. It replaces the horse-back rider which has symbolized the post office since 1837.

The law removed the postmaster general from the President's Cabinet and ostensibly takes the Post Office out of politics.

Blount has declined to say what his plans are when the new postal system becomes fully implemented a year from now.

The comprehensive overhaul of the postal system, approved by Congress last week, is designed to cut costs and improve service by infusing the mails with modern management techniques.

Postal officials see the reform as a welcome end to the problems of inefficiency, political patronage and outmoded procedures that several times in the past few years came close to causing a total breakdown.

Under the plan, the Post Office becomes a corporate-like, independent agency with the sole task of providing service to the American public—eventually on a break-even basis.

Congress' 181-year-old stranglehold on postage rates, postal salaries and spending for buildings and equipment gives way to internal rate-setting, collective bargaining between management and unions and capital financing through sale of bonds.

Although costs to taxpayers through budget deficits are expected to go down as the new system takes hold, costs to the mailing public may go up more than anticipated.

Blount revealed the price of a letter stamp, tentatively scheduled by postal officials for an increase from six to eight cents early next year, may soon thereafter go even higher.

Two months ago, Blount had predicted an eight-cent stamp would carry the new postal system through the next few years.

Although the new postal system does not become fully operative for one year, its nine-member, presidentially appointed board of governors may hike postage rates by one-third to help cover costs of pay raises for rank-and-file workers.

Bloodmobile to Be Here Mon., Aug 17

There are twenty thousand people in Hempstead County, any of whom may need blood at any moment. However, only about four hundred people carry the load for all those persons as repeating donors.

Haskell Jones, Hempstead County Blood Chairman, would like to secure one thousand persons who would pledge to give one pint a year. This would not work a hardship on any one individual but would assure the county an adequate supply of blood.

Would you help expand Hempstead County's four hundred to one thousand and be sure of having blood when it's needed? You will have an opportunity to become a member of the one thousand by starting Monday, August 17th, by giving a pint of blood while the bloodmobile is at the First Presbyterian Church. It will be there from 12 noon to 6:00 p.m.
